

The sun shone brightly on Wednesday and the best place to be was beside the seaside.

Guests and Rotarians, Liz Beardwell and her Grandchildren gathering at Royston Rotary Memory Cafe were encouraged to use their imagination, and the Coombes Community Centre became a shady seafront.

A game of Bingo, a traditional ice cream cornet, cold drinks and some saucy postcards helped to create a suitable atmosphere. Tea, coffee, and biscuits as usual were on hand and the morning concluded with a sing along of seaside themed songs led by Lesley Izod.
